The debt of the state of New York was $7,059,932

In 1880, it had fallen to $1,308,930

In 1880, and has since been virtually wiped out. Labor Commissioner Peck had good reason to report prosperity from every corner of the commonwealth.

Chicago News Record.—There is some grumbling among the old office-holders, but they have heretofore been such ardent advocates of Mr. Cleveland that they are not in a position now to criticize him.

The United States Government still pays $1,000 a day for morning and evening salutes. Few people have realized, probably, that it costs the country so much as that every year to have the sun daily rise and set.

Texas, which showed its "personal attachment" to Cleveland by giving him 140,000 plurality, demanded the Attorney Generalship, and it went to Massachusetts. It asked for the Mexican mission and Indiana got it. Texas must rear a few Mugwumps if it wants a chance at the crib under the present regime.

A Pension Office clerk a few days ago remarked that all the existing pension laws require to make them perfect is an amendment granting pensions to veterans for baldness. The sarcasm got to the ears of General Lamont, who promptly scalped the clerk, who thought it an undoubted bald proceeding.

The menace of Great Britain did not deter Thomas Jefferson from purchasing Louisiana. He bought it not only without the intervention of a junketing commission, but in the face of the fact that its boundaries North and South were uncertain and likely to embroil us in war.
Hawaii is offered to us without conditions.

The grand rush of the spoils seekers to Washington has made Mr. Cleveland
"tired and irritable," while Secretary Lamont, popularly supposed to be the source of "influence," has had to hire a "bouncer" to eject too persistent Democrats from his office. The chief trouble is that there are so many Democrats and so few offices.

Not only are the old official servants of Mr. Cleveland sent away without office and without hope, but new ap-prants for favors are told that Republicans who are in office will not be disturbed until the expiration of their terms unless they are unworthy or incompetent.

The oldest church in the United States is situated near Smithfield, Va. It was built in the reign of Charles I. before the years of 1650 and 1655. The brick, the lime and timber being imported from England. The timber is English oak, and was framed in England. It is a brick structure, erected in the most substantial manner. The mortar has become so hardened that it will strike fire in collision with steel.

Washington Star.—Washington hotel keepers are rather glad that Mr. Cleveland did not make a pre-inaugural announcement of his intentions as to ex-officeholders, but the sufferers are less philosophical. From avenue and corridor, smoking-room and street car, a wall of profane anguish goes up, for in all places of public resort are men who disbursed much cash and vocal energy that hardly be less profitable than they found them to be eight years ago.

A simple means is used to discover where coal thieves are numerous along the line of some of the Pennsylvania and New Jersey railroads. The coal is splashed with whitewash after it has been loaded upon the cars. As coal trains are often sidetracked at obscure places, the enemies of the coal trust take advantage of these delays to replenish their bins. A glance at a load that has been splashed with whitewash shows where coal has been removed, and these places are either guarded or avoided afterward.

BENCH WARRANTS have been issued for the arrest of seven Directors of the Paducah Jockey Club, who have been indicted for permitting gambling on their grounds in the shape of tin horses at the last meeting.
The indictments were returned at the recent term of court and created something of a sensation.

Early AND Late
Advertising in THE LEDGER is a salesman that works early and late. It is talking to people long before your store is open and long after your store is closed.

ALASKA has so far yielded $23,000,000 in sealskins. As a Republican Administration purchased this sealskin patch for $7,200,000, it ought to strike our good Democratic friends that it was a pretty good investment.

HAVING fortified his cabinet with one of the most influential newspaper men in the Solid South, President CLEVELAND issued a manifesto that none of the small fry editors were to be given Post office plums. This produced such a howl that the President raised the embargo on his most devoted supporters.

THE Democratic Courier-Journal says "the action of the last Congress in cutting down the salaries of the Assistant Secretaries $1,000 after itself spending over a billion dollars of the public funds was worthy of that aggregation of statesmen." It must not be forgotten that the last Congress was overwhelmingly Democratic, and that it spent a great deal more than Czar REX's "Billion Dollar Congress."

W. N. ROACH, the new Democratic United States Senator from North Dakota, was in 1877 Cashier of the Citizens' National Bank of Washington City, and pilfered $50,000 from that institution, a part of which was afterward made good by his bondsman. Republican Senators think he ought to be ousted, while ROACH thinks if at this late date to bring the matter up an injustice to the "thinks" do you prefer—the Republican or the Democratic?

In a recent conversation with FRANKLIN ALDER of Cincinnati, President CLEVELAND told Mr. ALDER that he had the general favor with which his cabinet selections had been received by the country at large as an evidence that the sectional feeling was about over. He had appointed for Secretary of the Navy a man who had fought through the war in the Confederate Army, and as Secretary of State a man who had been nearly killed by pieces of Confederate iron shells. That such men could be brought together in the Cabinet of an Administration without protest from either section regarded as the very best testimony that the time for sectional controversy had passed. President CLEVELAND may be assured that there will be no fault found with the appointment of a gallant ex-Confederate, for his Republican predecessors have set the good example. But it is the Mugwumps and political turncoats that have awakened the only protest that has been heard.

THE COACHMAN

Will Marry a Rich Massachusetts Widow.

Mrs. Dr. Hiller, With Five Million Dollars, the Bride.

A Poor French-Canadian Will Dismantle His Livery For a Dress Suit. The Widow Will Wear the Most Magnificent Costume Seen in the Country.

HISTON, March 16.—The widow of the late Dr. Hiller, of Wilmington, who is worth over $5,000,000, and who is expected to have a sensation two years ago when her husband died by providing a coffin and mausoleum which cost nearly a million dollars, is going to marry her coachman, a poor, uncouth, uneducated French Canadian, who has been employed by her less than a year. His name is Peter Surrette, and since his engagement to Mrs. Hiller his name has been changed to Henry Hiller II, or, in short, Mr. Hiller. The name will be perpetuated. As soon as the marriage is consummated Surrette will be put through a course at Harvard university.

In the mean time a private tutor has him in charge. Mrs. Hiller's bridal dress will be the most magnificent ever worn in this country. It will be a very thick, white satin, with long court train, trimmed with roses and orange blossoms. The dress will have emerald sleeves and a ruffled collar. The bridal veil will be three yards wide and trimmed in an exquisite fashion. Mrs. Hiller will wear white silk stockings and white satin slippers. Her jewelry will consist of gems seldom seen except on queens. While in her wedding dress she has over $10,000 worth of gems on her fingers, on this occasion she will be literally covered with sparkling diamonds and other jewels. The wedding includes an elegant diamond necklace, tiara, ear-rings, bracelets heavily set with diamonds and a waist belt of the same precious stones. The wedding dress will be of pearl-colored silk, trimmed with bands of pearls with fringe and lace adornments. The traveling dress will be of white cloth with black velvet sleeves, and a black band on the skirt. The groom will be arrayed in a costly evening dress, with a white embroidered silk, pearl-colored silk gloves, white satin puff tie. He will wear no jewelry. The church where the ceremony will be held is being specially frescoed for the occasion and the floral decorations will be beautiful in the extreme. Surrette, who, when he first came to Wilmington, was wearing overalls and chopping wood, is having six fine suits of clothes made for him and he will live like a king.

The Narcotic Thirty-Two Days Overdue—Some Hope.

NEW YORK, March 16.—Thirty-two days have now passed since anything has been seen of the White Star freighter, Narcotic. The Maestrale of the White Star Line, came up to quarantine Wednesday, but had not a word of the missing ship. The only vessel sighted was the Maestrale. The Maestrale reports five vessels.

Word has been received by the White Star people that the Teniente has put in at Liverpool with no news of the Narcotic. She deviated from her regular route and took a more southerly route than usual, in hopes of running across the missing ship.

The very fact that no debris has been reported by any of the trans-Atlantic vessels gives some cause for hope. It is hardly possible that the Narcotic had been pounced to pieces by heavy seas that she would not have left some traces in the way of floating spar or something of the kind.

A Boy Embosmer.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 16.—W. G. McLaughlin, a boy charged with embossing, Narcotic, the Maestrale of the White Star Line, came up to quarantine Wednesday, but had not a word of the missing ship.

Word has been received by the White Star people that the Teniente has put in at Liverpool with no news of the Narcotic. She deviated from her regular route and took a more southerly route than usual, in hopes of running across the missing ship.

THE Democratic Courier-Journal says "the action of the last Congress in cutting down the salaries of the Assistant Secretaries $1,000 after itself spending over a billion dollars of the public funds was worthy of that aggregation of statesmen." It must not be forgotten that the last Congress was overwhelmingly Democratic, and that it spent a great deal more than Czar REX's "Billion Dollar Congress."

W. N. ROACH, the new Democratic United States Senator from North Dakota, was in 1877 Cashier of the Citizens' National Bank of Washington City, and pilfered $50,000 from that institution, a part of which was afterward made good by his bondsman. Republican Senators think he ought to be ousted, while ROACH thinks if at this late date to bring the matter up an injustice to the "thinks" do you prefer—the Republican or the Democratic?

In a recent conversation with FRANKLIN ALDER of Cincinnati, President CLEVELAND told Mr. ALDER that he had the general favor with which his cabinet selections had been received by the country at large as an evidence that the sectional feeling was about over. He had appointed for Secretary of the Navy a man who had fought through the war in the Confederate Army, and as Secretary of State a man who had been nearly killed by pieces of Confederate iron shells. That such men could be brought together in the Cabinet of an Administration without protest from either section regarded as the very best testimony that the time for sectional controversy had passed. President CLEVELAND may be assured that there will be no fault found with the appointment of a gallant ex-Confederate, for his Republican predecessors have set the good example. But it is the Mugwumps and political turncoats that have awakened the only protest that has been heard.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., March 16.—Fred Wright, who was knocked out in the third round of a prize fight Tuesday night, is still unconscious and probably dying. The police are hunting for the promoters of the match.

MURDER REPORTED.
MORRIS HOLLY, N. J., March 16.—Wesley Warner, who was arrested last Wednesday was respited at the last moment. Warner was convicted of the murder of his sweetheart, Lizzie Peck.

Wild Waters of Many Western Rivers Overwhelming Their Banks.

CHICAGO, March 16.—The situation in the flooded districts of the west is practically unchanged Wednesday, except in Michigan, where reports are of steadily rising streams and great damage. At Grand Rapids the river is still rising and is now at the highest point reached in forty-two years.

Scores of factories and mills have shut down, throwing a large number of men out of employment. On the west side, 100 houses are surrounded by water. A number of families have moved out to boats, and much suffering prevails, as the weather has changed and a blizzard is blowing.

A specimen from Kansas says: "The rain of Tuesday night has turned to snow, but the river continues to rise. It is six inches higher than Tuesday night, but has not yet reached the mark caused by the ice gorge of 1887. All streams running into Kalamazoo river in this vicinity are higher than for years. The crops are shut down and surrounded with water and undermined."

In Illinois the Illinois river has been rising until it is now nearly as high as it was during the big flood of last season. The damage done by the flood is great, but not that of last year. Great damage is also reported along the Mississippi throughout Iowa and Minnesota.

At Keokuk the pressure of rising waters in the Mississippi river caused the levee, which protects the land of the Illinois bottoms in Lima Lake district, to give way. On Tuesday night, the levee broke, and lands are being overflowed to a depth of two or three feet.

FROM ALL THE WORLD.

Over a Million Dollars in Money and Rich Gifts Go to Rome.

ROME, March 16.—The pecuniary result of the Papal jubilee is a gleam to the coffers of the Vatican of upward of $2,000,000 as well as jewels, plate and other valuable articles, which are estimated to be worth nearly $500,000. The Duke of Norfolk heads the list of donors with an offering of $50,000, and next comes the Emperor Francis Joseph with $25,000. The Archbishop of Prague and Primate of Hungary give $4,000 each, as they can afford very well to do, considering that each prelate has a revenue of $40,000 a year. The Bohemian territorial magnates sent $15,000, while the nobility of Rome, and the convents and monasteries made up $20,000, and $10,000 came from South America.

Funeral of William Chidsey.
CINCINNATI, March 16.—One of the largest funerals has taken place in this city for a long time was that of William Chidsey, grand secretary of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, yesterday. It was attended by a large number of the state officers, as well as a large representation of the various local lodges, and hundreds of well-wishers.

The Episcopal burial service was read by the Rev. Peter J. Kinsley, of the rectory, and the Odd Fellows' rites were performed at Spring Grove cemetery. It was a deserved tribute to the man who knew all loved and whose loss will be deeply felt, not only among the Odd Fellows but among the citizens of Cincinnati.

The Honduras Troubles.
NEW YORK, March 16.—A special cable from Panama says: Ruiz Bandol, who was en route to Tegucigalpa, Honduras, was captured by the forces of General Vazquez and was brought a prisoner to Amapala. On arriving there a judgment of expatriation was decreed by the Honduran government. He is now the guest, with Ex-President Peralta, of Peru, of a prominent Columbian.

Word has been received of a bloody battle near Comayagua, where Vazquez is strongly entrenched. The leader of the Honduran forces maintains his position. Advice from San Bernardino state that Ex-President Bologan's followers have repudiated him, and have proclaimed the restoration of the republic.

Brave Firemen.
CHICAGO, March 16.—Fire in the wooden block at the corner of Randolph and Dearborn streets, at 5:15 o'clock Wednesday morning, caused a loss of $15,000, and created great excitement for the time. The third floor of the block was on fire, and there was a quantity of explosives in the office. Three firemen went into the blazing building and removed the dangerous stuff, while the chemical engines played upon their clothing. An explosion was thus averted.

Brass vs. Argent.
VALPARAISO, March 16.—The possibility of war between Argentina and Brazil, on account of aid given by the former to the revolutionists in Rio Grande do Sul, will be a matter in the settlement of the disputes between Chile and the Argentine republic. There is no doubt that warlike talk in Rio Grande hastened the agreement which was reached yesterday in Santiago between the Chilean minister of foreign affairs and the minister from Argentina.

Press Convention.
ROCKFORD, Ill., March 16.—Representative publishers and editors from all over the state gathered here Tuesday to participate in the twenty-eighth annual convention of the Illinois Press Association. Many noted newspaper men from adjoining states were also among the visitors. The convention opened Tuesday evening with an address of welcome by Mayor Scott, of the Chicago Herald.

Prominent Paris Dies.
BUTLER, Pa., March 16.—Judge McCandless, who was stricken with paralysis on Monday, is dead. He was 55 years of age, and was the leader of the Butler bar. He served as chief justice of New Mexico by appointment of President Hayes, and for a short time was judge of this district.

Another Revolver Case.
SHAWNEE, Ok., March 16.—Thos. Gibson, a colored man, was shot on Wednesday morning in New Straitsville, O., by shooting himself with a revolver. Prior to his marriage, in December, he had always been a resident of this place, and from a highly respected family. He was seen on the streets here early Wednesday morning, and the sad news of his death was a general sensation. He has been drinking hard for a few days past. The cause of his rash act is not known.

Earthquake Near New York.
NEW YORK, March 16.—The residents of Jamaica, L. I., were startled at about 3:10 Monday afternoon by a rumbling sound. This was followed by a shaking of houses, crockery and windows. Many believe the phenomena to have been caused by an earthquake.

FIRE BURIED.

A Fearful Fire in Chicago Early Wednesday Morning

In Which a Whole Family is Caught Under a Falling Roof.

A Picture-Frame Factory Takes Fire and Causes the Death of Two Persons and the Injury of Several Others—Two of Them Are Stricken.

CHICAGO, March 16.—A few minutes after 9 o'clock Wednesday morning fire started in Stephen Carter's picture frame factory at 134 and 136 May street. The building was a brick structure 150 by 125 feet and five stories in height. It was well stocked with picture frames and material. A short time after the fire started the top of the south wall fell in on the roof of the factory, killing five people. The dead are supposed to be S. J. Chartier, uncle of Stephen Carter, Lillie Chartier, 12 years old, and Stephen Carter, rescued from his residence, left leg broken and internally injured.

Rose Chartier, 10 years old, and Patrick O'Connor, pipe-maker, with English Company No. 7, crushed under falling wall and bruised and almost killed.

E. Cook, driver of engine No. 3, crushed by falling wall and badly bruised, but not fatally.

The floors and inside walls were in another place, the building was a frame structure. A part of the roof fell on the fifth floor, having previously been crushed by the falling wall. The fire was carried with it great sections of the flooring, thus weakening the joists that supported the south wall. This began to lean and the roof fell in.

The mass of bricks fell almost entirely upon the roof of Mr. Carter's dwelling, which was a frame structure. This was completely and instantly demolished, and in the ruins were the bodies of five people who had been sleeping there.

The fire had been burning but a short time, and Mr. Carter had returned to the home to awaken those who were sleeping in the building. The collapse of the Carter residence a part of the front wall fell into the street. The firemen and police at once began to dig out the victims.

The cries of a man were heard, and in another moment Mr. Carter was lifted out. He was in a semi-conscious condition and probably fatally injured. Two firemen were injured by the falling wall.

J. E. Cook, a driver, was working near the front of the building when the wall fell. He was crushed beneath the brick and when taken out it was found that he had received a number of cuts and bruises about the head and shoulders. It is thought he will recover.

In an alley near the Carter residence Patrick O'Connor was at work, and he, like Cook, was buried. His head was buried and lower limbs were crushed, but no bones were broken. He will probably recover.

The flames destroyed the entire interior of the building, entailing a loss of $60,000, fully insured.

A short time after the firemen recommenced the work of rescue, Rose Chartier was taken out. She was found that her face and head were badly cut and bruised. She will recover.

Shortly afterward the firemen took the last victim. The last victim was most completely buried, but her life had been miraculously saved by a heavy door that covered her. She was crushed and cut about the face, but will recover.

The body of S. J. Chartier was found near the cottage south of 7 o'clock. The head was badly crushed by a section of wall, and death must have been immediate. Soon after 9 o'clock the search reached the last victim—Lillie Chartier. Both the bodies were removed to the morgue, where an inquest will be held.

Corn Transmits Hydrophobia to a Cow.
SHAWNEE, Ok., March 16.—A few weeks ago a dog owned by Samuel Sharp, a well-to-do farmer living near Lynchburg, was observed to be acting strangely. The dog was fastened in a corn crib and in a short time a genuine case of hydrophobia developed. The saliva of the dog was very profuse, while in its maddened fits, and was intermingled with the corn in the crib. The dog was afterward killed. Thinking nothing more of the matter the corn was fed to a cow, who in a short time had the same symptoms as the dog. The cow was also killed. Now Sharp, who has been ill much of the time during the winter, is in a short time recovering, as he drank the cow's milk, and fears that in this manner the mad-dreaded hydrophobia was transmitted to him and the other members of the family.

CONDENSED NEWS

Adapted from all parts of the Country

Several cases of cholera have appeared in the prison in Moscow. The president has accepted the resignation of Gov. W. M. Stone, of Iowa, commissioner of the general land office, to take effect March 31.

The directors of the New York Central road held a meeting Wednesday and decided to increase the capital stock of that company from $9,428,000 to $10,000,000.

Tuesday afternoon, Hattie Clark, a Negro, sued by saturating her clothing with kerosene, applying a match and roasting herself to death. No cause is given for the act.

One hundred towns and villages of Minnesota held biennial elections. Most of the candidates were chosen on citizens' or People's tickets and political lines were not closely drawn.

A fire in Thomas Kesh's cheapen factory, at Cincinnati, caused a big scare Tuesday afternoon. Three thousand dollars' worth of damage was done, which is covered by insurance.

A Berlin dispatch says: If the report that Chili and Peru will fight Switzerland to act as arbitrator in their dispute is true, the head of the high court at Lausanne will be entrusted with the duty.

A little son of Mrs. Callie Hubbard, of Portsmouth, was knocked over by a bicycle rider from Tilton Falls. His injuries are regarded as fatal. He was also injured, but not dangerously.

The Colorado senate Wednesday morning passed a bill abolishing capital punishment. The bill will doubtless become a law, as Gov. Wate is known to favor it, and it is almost certain to pass the house.

Secretary Hoke Smith has appointed M. Cooper Pope, of Washington, Ga., chief of the division of lands and railroads, secretary's office, interior department, class E. A. Weaver, of Pennsylvania, resigned.

At St. Louis Harland Murray, after a dispute with his wife, attempted to shoot her. The bullet instead of hitting her, killed his sixty-seven-year-old mother, who attempted to shield her daughter from the jealous man's fury.

Abell, called on the Travel from London Wednesday, with his daughter Gladys, for New York, with the intention of obtaining his other children at Newport. Gladys is the child whom Mrs. Deacon abducts.

The Cherokee Strip is being invaded by crooks and gamblers. They were seen there Wednesday, encamped along the line of the Santa Fe road. A troop of United States cavalry is stationed about twelve miles south of the line. Movers are halted at this point and ordered to move on.

Hiram Taylor has accepted a position in the city of Mayville. We predict for him a bright future, as he is full of push and go-ahead attitude that all business men are full of that eventuality to much. Success to you, Hiram.

Edwin Mathews, one of our young men and a student of the Cincinnati Dental College, is here and has out his sign soliciting work in profession. Though he is not yet a full fledged Doctor, we can say anyone wanting work done in his line just give him a trial and be convinced that he has applied his time and profited thereby.

Mr. and Mrs. James May, have an elegant tea in honor of J. M. May, their son of Lawrencetown. Those present were Mrs. L. J. Jefferson, Mrs. Benie Johnson of Lexington, Mrs. Thomas T. Houser, Mr. and Mrs. Charles May, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. May, Mr. J. McCarty, Miss Bessie Worthington and Miss Anna May. The menu was elaborate and elegantly. Music was the order of the evening. Those contributing to the musicale were Mrs. James May, Miss Bessie Worthington and Charles Wheeler. Miss Lulu May, daughter of the host and hostess, looked well to the wants and comforts of everyone. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Group at Plainfield, N. J.

My boy, five years of age, was recently taken with a severe attack of croup. I thought that I would lose him. I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and concluded to try it, and am happy to say that after two doses he was better, and after the third morning. He had another attack the next day, but the same remedy and a prompt cure was effected. I feel that I cannot praise this remedy too highly.

Mr. J. M. May, of Plainfield, N. J.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will not only cure croup, but will prevent it. If freely given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. Several doses are usually required. There is no danger in giving it freely, as it contains nothing injurious, and is most potent for sale by Power & Sons, druggists.
